Knowing Figueroa Mountain for so many years, I've always admired it as an invaluable painting that's too superb to be confined in a Museum.

Instead, the immeasurable curved forms rise freely above the ground, allowing me to absorb fragments of its beauty and transform them into one of my special creations.

Located in the sunny California on the south-west of the United States of America, the charming Figueroa Mountain is a magical landscape. Evoking the Californian mountain, the Figueroa stool has the same lines of the original armchair. The luxurious stool recreates the profile of the mountain with a surprisingly smooth curve around it and the yellow tone of the golden land is replaced by the handcrafted base in brushed brass.

Young photographer Logan Deats lives in California where he captures outstanding views of Santa Barbara County. Thank you for letting Figueroa Mountain to become a part of INSIDHERLAND.
